ACTIVE PACIFISM COMES TO HONG KONG

Peace Pledge Union

MEMBERS TO RENOUNCE WAR IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCES

A branch of the Peace Pledge Union of Great Britain was formed in Hong Kong last night, at a meeting held in the Jacobean Room of the Hong Kong Hotel, at which the Rev. J. D. Maclean presided. The aim of the Peace Pledge Union is to endeavour to have war abolished by the promotion of pacifism in the world.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. David Spreckley of the Peace Pledge Union of Great Britain after which a number of questions were asked by some of those present of whom there were about 25. The Rev. J. D. Maclean opening the meeting said:

This meeting has been called, not to discuss pacifism, but to form a Group of the Peace Pledge Union.

It may seem a mad moment to attempt to found such a group in this outpost of British Imperialism. It may even seem to some a piece of rank impertinence, or that we are attempting to add insult to injury, by seeking to found a Peace Pledge, in a community of people who were the victims of western imperialism, and whose country is at present being devastated by the cruelties of war. If that should be the opinion of any here, then I can only ask you to bear with us until you have learned the reasons and the nature of the Pledge which we are hoping to found.

I do not wish to trespass at all on what the speaker may have to say this evening, but before calling upon him to address you, I would like to make clear a few points concerning the conduct of this meeting.

In the first place, let me reiterate that this meeting was called with the express purpose of forming a Group of the Peace Pledge Union. After the speaker, has

MANY CASUALTIES REPORTED AT QUINSAN

CHINESE REMOVAL OF CAPITAL A GESTURE OF DEFIANCE

Shanghai, November 18: Although the Japanese announce the occupation of part of Kashing the situation on the front has, according to Chinese reports, taken a turn for the better after one week of considerable confusion. While the left flank is withstanding all the attacks the Chinese claim that not only have they halted the Japanese advance in the centre to Soochow but have gained ground as a result of a powerful counter-offensive. Despite rain and poor visibility thirty Chinese planes are stated to have assisted in the operations "heavily bombing the Japanese lines and base at Quinsan and causing heavy casualties." Chinese reports assert that two thousand more Japanese troops arrived in three transports this morning "bringing the total number of Japanese reinforcements during the past fortnight to sixty thousand."—Reuter.

London, November 18: The "Manchester Guardian" in a leader on the formation of the Japanese Imperial general headquarters on a grant from the Diet funds for a campaign "for the furtherance of Japan's spirit," says that whatever triumphs come to the Japanese Army will be at a heavy cost to the civilian population. The balance of Japan's economic life must be seriously, perhaps permanently, disturbed.

The "News Chronicle" eulogizing Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek says that the Chinese resistance which has roused the admiration of the world is likely to be stiffened and made even more effective by the changes taking place in the highest Government Posts.

The "Birmingham Post" says that even one year ago Japan's success would have brought Peiping to the head of Nanking. To-day the effect is only to harden Chinese resistance. The removal of the capital is a gesture of defiance not an admission of defeat, says the paper.—Reuter.

Shanghai, November 18: Hitherto unable to break the Chinese "Hindenburg Line," the extremists of whom were shelled from land and sea, the Japanese Army are assuming amphibian guise and are busily pushing further fleets of motorised fishing junks to Taihu Lake with the intention of landing on the north-east coast, for an attack on the Chinese rear. Many of these launches all of which are commanded by Japanese fishermen come from the Inland Sea and present a most picturesque and unfamiliar sight as they steam up the Whangpoo River past Shanghai.—Reuter.

Tokyo, November 18: "Now the whole nation can be put on a war-time basis. Prince Konoye will be able to centralise all administration departments, and all Government business except the waging of war will be of secondary importance."

This is the gist of the Japanese press comments upon the formation of Imperial Headquarters in Tokyo. The decree signed by the Emperor, stipulates that the formation of Imperial Headquarters will not be restricted to a time of actual war, but may be carried out in any national crisis. The formal declaration of war will therefore not be a pre-requisite.

It is stated that, at least for the time being, the system of Government in Japan and the existing Cabinet will not undergo any changes. As a liaison organ between the Government and the Imperial Headquarters, Prince Konoye will form a body to be styled "National Defence Council."—Transocean.

Powers Define Attitude To Japan

Brussels, Nov. 18.

The declaration which was adopted on November 15 regretted Tokyo's refusal to co-operate with the conference, and affirmed that the Sino-Japanese conflict was not a matter for direct settlement between China and Japan. It stated that the Powers must consider what should be their common attitude if Japan's refusal to join the talks is maintained.—Reuter.

Paramount's Picturization Of Sino-Japanese War

Filmed in the actual firing lines of the Chinese and Japanese forces in the Shanghai, Chapel and Nanking areas, the Paramount Newsreel organization has produced a record of achievement and disaster, of heroism, degradation, of sacrifice and struggle which has no parallel in the history of film making as was proved by the initial screening at the Queen's Theatre yesterday afternoon of a series of newsreels brought specially to Hong Kong by air.

This astounding series of scenes of actual fighting will be screened again at all sessions to-day.

TO-MORROW'S RACING DISCUSSED

St. Leger The Main Event

BY "LAST QUARTER"

The Hong Kong St. Leger for griffins of this season with seven other handicap events comprise the programme for the Eleventh Extra Race Meeting of the Hong Kong Jockey Club at Happy Valley tomorrow afternoon. The first race is timed for 2.00 p.m. and the first saddling bell will be rung at 1.30 p.m. Judging from the entries, there is every assurance of the majority accepting but disappointment must be expressed that no provision has been made for "D" Class China ponies at this meeting. Races for this latter class of ponies have always been popular as such events are keenly contested and starters plentiful.

The opening event, Castle Peak Handicap, over one mile for "A" Class China ponies should be very interesting although I feel the issue will lie between three ponies only. Bear Claw has been improving steadily since the last outing and despite the weight should be very near, but Gladiator will undoubtedly push the Dunbar candidate all the way. I hold a very high opinion of Gladiator in any race over a mile or under and to-morrow with only 145 lbs. to look after and the advantage of Mr. Marshall's services this bay should do well. Wild Life seems to have lost a little of her form but she is still dangerous. The distance is a little too much for Oak Bay, while Cossacks Beauty and Soldier of Britain, even at 140 lbs., do not appear to be in the same class as the others, and may soon be due for demotion.

Nanking Prepares To Evacuate

Shanghai Nov. 18. General Chang Fah-kwei, Commander of the Chinese "Ironclads," has launched a counter-offensive against the Japanese troops which are pressing on towards Kashing, according to Chinese reports. Heavy fighting is in progress.

Meanwhile reports from Nanking state that the compounds at the War Office and other ministries have been lighted up by huge bonfires as officials are burning the records and archives which, it has been decided, will not be transferred to the new quarters at Hankow, Changsha and Chungking.

Fifty Americans remain in Nanking, most of whom are doctors and nurses who will stay until evacuation is absolutely necessary. Forty Britons in the capital have moved to the new Embassy, ready for speedy evacuation should necessity arise. German advisers to the Chinese Government are under orders to depart at a moment's notice, while the German Embassy staff is prepared to board a chartered merchant steamer as soon as it is necessary to do so. Members of the Italian Embassy and Italian air advisers to the Government are likewise ready to leave, while the Soviet advisers are awaiting developments. The French are prepared to board a French warship, while two American warships are going down river to supplement the one already at Nanking.—Reuter.

Japanese Loot Foreign Homes

Shanghai, Nov. 18: Ignoring notices posted by the High Japanese Command forbidding them to enter foreign property, Japanese troops in the Hungjiao Road residential area looted a number of British and American homes flying British and American flags, according to British and American owners who visited the area this morning. Despite the fact that no Chinese troops are within a radius of thirty miles from Shanghai, the residential area outside the western perimeter is still closed by the Japanese Army not to mention Hongkew and Yangtszepoo which are within the Settlement itself.—Reuter.

A prominent Briton who found his house intact three days ago was appalled to-day to see that it had been completely plundered; even oil paintings had been torn from their frames.

Two Sikh watchmen who went to the house with special passes were speedily ejected and forced to return to the International Settlement.

FANLING HUNT AND RACE CLUB

Future Not Very Optimistic

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Fanling Hunt and Race Club was held in the Board Room of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co. Ltd., yesterday evening, when the accounts for the year ended September 30, 1937, were adopted. Mr. M. M. Watson was in the chair and others present were Messrs. W. T. Stanton, H. A. Browning, L. J. A. Fielden, A. H. Potts, H. C. Macnamara, L. Walsley-Coatham, E. Hazeland, E. Nelson and F. G. Maunder.

The accounts showed a loss of $3,787.16 but in his speech the Chairman pointed out that these figures looked worse than they were actually. He added that though he could not, in the circumstances, express a very optimistic view of the future, it was quite possible that things might improve as conditions on the racecourse had, chiefly through the damage done by the typhoon, not been normal during the year under review.

Mr. Watson said in part:—With regard to the accounts before you I would remind you that they refer to the last season, that is 1936-37, the accounts of the Club being made up to the 30th September last.

In the first place referring to the accounts in general the year under review was considerably worse than the previous year inasmuch as a small profit of $171 turned into a loss of $3,787.16, the reasons for which I will deal with in due course. I will deal with the several income and expenditure accounts in the order set out in the accounts merely remarking at this stage that although they all show losses so far as the Hunters Arms and Stables are concerned they do not in fact do so in the general accounts.

This account shows a net loss of $1,305.39 against the previous year's profit of $1,700. This loss, as you will doubtless have observed, was due to the absence of special sweeps and also to a reduction in the turnover of the amount of money placed on the pari mutuel. In the Stable Account there has been a distinct improvement on the previous year, the loss being reduced from $1,351 to $555.

As I mentioned in my speech at the last annual meeting, the experiment of the new system of shoeing had not proved a profitable one and since this has been changed this account has shown a distinct improvement, and it is due to the new system of charges for shoeing and a small increase in the price of stabling that has accounted for the lowering of the loss, son this account.

HUNTER'S ARMS

This account has also shown a decrease in the loss over the previous year of some $700 notwithstanding the turnover on the bar account was not as large as it was the previous year, and this comment also applies to the number of meals served, and there was also a reduction in the amount of revenue received on board charges.

GENERAL INCOME & EXPENDITURE

As I have already mentioned, this shows a heavy loss against a small profit the previous year. This is accounted for by two items: first, the loss on the racecourse already referred to and secondly the reserve for advances which have been made from the Club accounts for the Hunt account. As you are aware, the Club subscription for ordinary members of the Club is $20 per annum and in addition those members who hunt pay a further hunt subscription at present fixed at $25 per year.

In the past years it has been the practice to apportion the Club subscriptions against the expenditure on the racecourse, the stables and the Hunters' Arms respectively, and if this is done with the present accounts the stables and Hunters' Arms accounts would not show losses. It is unfortunate that there was a loss on the racecourse, as one naturally expects this to be the real maker of revenue for the Club; and but for this loss the subscriptions would have more than covered the working of the Club apart from the Hunt.

In connection with the accounts of the Hunt I should mention that although the balance of excess expenditure over income for last year as shown in the accounts is $2,835, a portion is accounted for

UNUSUAL SUMMONS

Woman Wants Man Bound To Keep Peace

An unusual summons was heard and dismissed by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Magistracy yesterday. Wong Tak, alias Wong Tin-tan, of 24 Des Voeux Road, first floor, was summoned by Chan Shul-pak married woman, of 59 Sai Yeung Choi Street, third floor, to show cause why he should not be bound over to keep the peace towards her.

Defendant was represented by Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios, while complainant had no legal adviser. Complainant stated in the witness box that her chief fear was because defendant had persistently asked her to practice medicine and to give injections to patients. Defendant had also asked her to go home and borrow money for him and when she failed to get the money he had assaulted her, pummeling her with his fist. She had married defendant on October 2 and had stayed with him at 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

POLICE OFFICER MARRIED

A large number of friends attended the wedding, at the Union Church yesterday morning between Miss Arnot Dixon and Sgt. H. A. McKay, of the Fingerprints Department of the Hong Kong Police Force.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lieb in Austin Road, where the happy couple were the recipients of congratulations and good wishes.

FAILED TO REPORT DEPARTURE

Ng Yam-hoon, a student of languages and a native of French Indo-China, appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a charge of failing to report his departure to the police when he left for Japan on September 30, 1936. Defendant pleaded that a friend had promised to do it for him but had neglected to do so. He was fined $15.

by the writing off of $2,007 of the cost of the hounds, some of which was an accumulated sum over two or three years, so that the actual loss for the last season was in fact not so big as appears in the accounts, the value of the hounds having now been written down to the nominal sum of $100.

PROSPECT NOT OPTIMISTIC

With regard to the general aspect of the Club I cannot, in view of the present circumstances, express a very optimistic view of the future although I think it is quite possible that the racecourse may show an improvement particularly as we are making a determined effort to reduce the expenses of running the race meetings but against this possible reduction of expense we have suffered a considerable loss owing to the destruction at the racecourse caused by the last typhoon and also at the stables.

In conclusion I would like to tender our thanks to the various members of the Club who have done a considerable amount of work in the past year and particularly to those connected with the Hunt who have been visiting Fanling regularly during the summer for the purpose of looking after the hounds which are in excellent condition.

Proposed by the Chairman and seconded by Mr. Stanton, the accounts were adopted. Messrs. Thomson and Company were re-elected Secretaries, and the meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Company for having allowed the use of their Board Room.

PARIS FASHIONS THERE IS WHIMSY IN NEW WINTER
DRESSES
ACCESSORIES

The new winter dresses are simple, with normal waist-lines and short skirts, while the sleeves show fullness at the shoulders and taper to tight wrists. The shoulder-line is broad and sloping rather than square. Paquin's dresses have elaborately worked sleeves, shirred, honeycombed, and ruffled to contrast with the smoothly fitted bodies. Afternoon dresses have yokes and sleeves in transparent fabrics, and a black silk crepe dress may have chiffon sleeves, while black lace can be allied to heavy crepe marocain for a dinner.

Gold clips and buckles set with jewels and gold embroidery and belts are in fashion. A gold kid belt embroidered with butterflies is cut wide at the back and narrow in front. The dresses at Worth's are worked with gold threads. An ostrich feather, delicately outlined in gold, sweeps across the bodice of a fine black woolen crepe frock, and three gold leaves worked in a heavier stitch trim another model. Gold embroidery squares the shoulders of many dresses and the design may be carried on down the sleeves.

Heavy fur trimmings look well upon coats, jackets, and tunics. The fox collars at Paquin's are draped and gathered high on the shoulders. Filled revers in blue and silver fox are also shown. Pale pink and yellow broadcloth coats for the Riviera have collars of blue fox or black astrakhan. The former fur makes a draped collar to trim a pale blue tailor-made, as well as a border on the hem of a white tunic worn with a black coat which has a square collar of fur and a fared hem-line. A beaver collar is put with a turquoise-blue and nigger-brown tweed "ensemble," and nutria faces round collars which fasten at the throat and turn up to cup the face. A number of coats are just 4in. shorter than the dresses they match, while tunics are put with coats of an equal length.

Thin materials, such as lace, chiffon, and fine silk jersey, are used for evening dresses which fall in soft folds. A violet-blue jersey dress has a draped bodice drawn into a gold buckle at the waist-line and the drapery continues in long lines down the front of the skirt. Matching capes, boleros, and jackets make most evening dresses suitable for dinner wear.

Grey is a good colour for knitted woollen "ensembles." Anny Blatt makes a one-piece dress in pale grey Cashmere thread and slashes the bodice on both sides with vertical insets of vivid orange to match the upstanding collar. A strawberry-pink jacket goes well with a plain grey skirt, and grey Cashmere wool makes a sports-bouise over which is worked a design of small green sugar-loaf trees. A dark grey tailor-made is checked and striped with lighter colour and the skirt flares out above the knees in sunray pleats. Touches of colour are right in knitted clothes. Deep duck-egg blue and claret-red, or violet and beige, are colours which Anny Blatt puts together, and two and three light colours are worked into patterns upon knitted blouses in neutral shades. Unusual threads are knitted by hand, and fine wool and narrow silk ribbon may be worked together in the bodice of an afternoon frock. A new rayon thread which varies in thickness produces a spotted effect when made up.

Checks of all sizes are correct for sports clothes and the designs are used in straight and bias cuts. A dark grey tailor-made with a yellow line check may have a straight panel down the front of the crosscut skirt. Materials which are woven with a check in relief are also in fashion. Finely checked tweeds in two and three colours make sports dresses with long sleeves and pleated skirts. Mixtures of deep red, green, and brown upon beige grounds are right for these dresses, and plain brown leather belts with white saddle-stitched edges go with them.

The woman who has one well-chosen outfit for the winter and wants to ring the changes depends for variety and ultimate chic on alternate sets of accessories, each matched to a colour scheme.

Accessories those whimsies which give women even more pleasure than the basic dresses and suits, have never been gay or more amusing than this season. The little gold cupid which many women have hankered after, but which, so far, have been confined to an important, expensive dress-making house, are now in the London stores at any price from five shillings upwards, according to the quality of their make.

BROOCHES RETURN

Gold jewellery of every kind is liked, in particular, fine gold mesh, making a necklace like a collar to wear with the high-throated dresses. Bunches of grapes in crystal or catallin are worn on the revers or as a brooch on the shoulder. A cascade of seed pearls like a tassel is a fantasy of the moment which women like to wear up at the neck.

Gloves are matched up to stockings with meticulous care when sun-beige, the most generally liked shade, is used, but with sable and earth browns, and also with blacks, a warm yet pale tan stocking is chosen.

REINDEER SHOES

Reindeer makes many of the soft pull-on gloves, handsewn doeskin the other. Reindeer and suede makes shoes with the high line up the instep which the fashion-able woman fancies.

In handbags there is a completely new departure with "dress-maker" bags which have no frame, but are drawn up in triangular shape. They are made in soft woollens, in suede, and in velvet, slung on the wrist. An amusing bag revival, when frames are used, is the gold-mesh bag of the early years of the century, matching the gold-mesh necklaces.

In furs the newest whimsy is the boa of fox tails or the long scarf to twist round the neck, of skunk for instance, with a velvet lining, a pocket in the lining.

The new thought in cigarette cases (and, indeed, in cigarette boxes) is to have them transparent, so that you see at a glance whether you have any left to offer and to smoke.

Round The Shops

Winter fashions and the little nice things that go towards making milady's wardrobe such an attractive proposition continue to arrive in the Colony and no sooner they are unpacked than the shop windows are dressed in the latest styles—inviting inspection from the ladies about town.

At LANE CRAWFORD'S LADIES' SALON this week we see special displays of gloves in a very complete range of sizes, in kids of all shades, washing leathers and hogskins. There are also very nice little gauntlets for motoring during the cold weather when the hands are so apt to chap, and these are fur-lined, thus ensuring the greatest warmth and comfort. This popular store also has a nice lot of fabric gloves which are always so useful. These are to be had in various shades of brown.

The ever-popular "Bradley" knitted two and three piece suits are being displayed by RIVELLE'S who have also just unpacked a shipment of nice things. There were many people looking them over when the writer went into this store but the one that attracted most was a model in brown combined with olive green. It had a special silk scarf to go with it and it appeared to be just the thing for the Races to-morrow! This store is also showing a number of the fur-trimmed coats which are so favoured at the moment.

The mere mention of MAYO'S makes one think of hats and the very best hats too! They have on display at the moment hats of all shapes—those with high crowns, the shallow shaped-hats with brims, "pill-boxes" with feathers, ribbons and veil trimmings and oh, ever so nice hats. These are but a few of the new styles that are being shown by MAYO'S this week. They are expecting more to come so keep well-in with this store—that is where you get "high hats!"

LONDON FASHIONS

NEW KNITTED WOOLLENS

Fashions in knitted woollens for the autumn owe much of their good looks to clever uses of colour contrasts. The favourite colours are rust, London tan, ginger, and various shades of green; these are specially good for country clothes. Many other colours are being shown, such as gipsy-violet, navy, red, nigger, golden-yellow, and black; but the rusts (of which there are many) and the greens, used singly or together, are the dominant notes in the new collections. A pinky-toned rust looks well with a cloudy ginger-green, and a house dress in a new bouclé yarn in this shade of green trimmed with rust, which was used as a piping and on the collar, was attractive.

Jumper suits are made in many knitted materials; bouclé in a pinky-rust makes a pretty suit trimmed with made flowers of the yarn. Other jumper suits are in a new corduroy stitch in soft wool (like a stocking stitch, but finer), the rib giving a firm look. A suit in this knit in leaf-green was fastened high to the neck, with a zip-fastener and had two breast pockets.

The jumper is fastened with bone buttons and has four slit stitched pockets, a chiffon scarf in a contrasting colour folded in at the throat, and a wrap-over skirt. The contrasting colours are unusual, one of them being a lime yellow scarf with a gipsy violet suit. A handknit jumper suit has a flower design in colour knitted in across the front of the jumper. Others among the more elaborate designs show similar decorations.

Among the simpler dresses is a skirt dress in jersey with a zip fastening up the back. This is an American style which is easy to adjust and can be brightened by a coloured tie and belt. Striped jersey in two colours is used for other plain tailored dresses; the stripes are used in clever ways to give a design, while one of the colours forms the piping to the seams. The tailored jersey dresses are almost tubular in their slim line, and little of the odd treatment of shoulders is seen in these, or indeed in any of the new knitted clothes.

The fashion for colour contrasts is employed in new cardigan and jumper sets for sports. A striped jumper has a plain cardigan with sunk pockets lined in the colour of one of the stripes; as this lining shows, the effect is novel. Other sets have merely a colour contrast in plain shades of the two garments. For sports cashmere is the favourite, as it is the most pleasant and comfortable in wear.

The use of knitted materials for the country and for travelling has spread to such an extent—owing to their clever imitation of tweeds and to their firmer texture allowing them to be tailed as successfully as an actual tweed—that they are now seen in three-pieces of loose, three-quarter top-coat and cardigan suits. Some are also made with capes instead of a top coat. For these plaid effects "dog's tooth" and mixtures are usual, and unless one knows it is difficult to realize that they are actually knitted fabrics. Others in plain colours are being "town-tailored" and finished with braid. The advantage they have over ordinary materials is their resiliency and a warmth which is felt immediately they are put on.

Ginger Favours These Furs

Smart for every sports occasion is Ginger Rogers' baby lamb coat. Cut on simple lines, the fur itself is displayed to best advantage, while the square silhouette, popular for this fall, is also emphasized. Most dramatic of all furs for evening wear, white ermine, was fashioned into a short cape for Ginger Rogers to wear in RKO Radio's "Stage Door," in which she is co-starring with Katharine Hepburn. The gown of Nile green soule was designed by Muriel King. The flowing fullness of the skirt is achieved by inserted godets. The bodice is draped in Grecian fashion and is decorated with an unusual bouquet of delicate green flowers of cellophane.

STATUE 'DISAPPEARS'

Dublin, Nov. 17.
The statue of King George II at the entrance to the Weavers' Hall
in the poorer district of Dublin
has now mysteriously disappeared.
Several attempts had previously been made to bomb it to pieces,
each attempt having failed, although on one occasion the statue was partially smashed.—

NEW ROUMANIAN
CABINET

Bucharest Nov. 17.
The Premier, M. Tatarescu, has succeeded in forming a new Cabinet, after he had secured
the co-operation of Dr. Vaida Voyvod, leader of the Rumanian Front. Georges Bratianu, Liberal leader, who was also approached,
declined co-operation as he failed
to receive assurances for a suspension of the emergency legislation.
It is understood that M. Franascovici will be Minister of Interior and
M. Bujoi has been asked to take over the Ministry of Trade.

In a statement the new Premier said that the election agreement
entered into with the Rumanian Front did not mean that one of the parties had dropped its political programme.—

LORD HALIFAX
IN BERLIN

Berlin, Nov. 17.
Lord Halifax, Lord President of the Council, lunched with the German Foreign Minister, Baron
Konstantin von Neurath to-day,
and afterwards visited the German Hunting Exhibition, where he was received by the Master Hunter, Tascherup, acting on behalf of General Goering, and by Herr Lochenberg, technical director of the Exhibition, who is a distinguished artist, specialising in painting hunting scenes.

The visit of Lord Halifax to the Exhibition caused considerable excitement and he was enthusiastically greeted by the 55,000 visitors
with cries of "Hell Halifax."

A statement issued by the British Embassy here states that Lord
Halifax will visit the Exhibition again to-morrow, otherwise he has no engagements in Berlin. On the invitation of Chancellor Hitler he will leave for Berchtesgaden tomorrow evening. Baron von Neurath will accompany him.

On returning to the British Embassy from the Exhibition, Lord
Halifax issued the following statement:
"Great Britain and every country owe a great debt of gratitude to General Goering for the encouragement given the sport by the International Hunting Exhibition
in Berlin. The first thing that must strike everyone is the organisation and the thoroughness that is evident in every part of the exhibition. It is prepared with so true a sense of value and taste
that one here feels showmanship
to be indeed closely allied to art.
This is perhaps not astonishing
when one learns that the person principally responsible under General Goering is himself author of several exhibits in one section devoted to modern art.

Those responsible have undoubtedly succeeded in producing a unique assembly of sporting trophies from all participating countries. As General Goering has truly said, the value of the exhibition is not purely sporting.
The exhibition reminds sportsmen
the world over—and most of us are sportsmen in some degree or other—of all they have in common."—"Transocean News Service"

POPE PIUS XI TO HOLD SECRET CONSISTORY

Rome, Nov. 17.
Pope Pius XI will hold a secret consistory on December 13 and a public consistory on December 16,
as already previously reported.
At the latter court the Pope will nominate 5 Cardinals and award
the Red Hat.

Amongst the new members of the Cardinals College there are three Italian Patriarchs, the Patriarch of Venice, Monsignor Piazza, the Papal Nunco
in Belgrade, Archbishop Pelle-grineti, and Archbishop Pizzardo, leader of the congregation for extraordinary church affairs. The Pope has also summoned the Archbishop of Westminster and the Archbishop of Lyons to the Cardinals Court, the number of members of which is now 69.—

A new film star—handsome,
talented and infinitely likeable—
flashed across the screen of the Majestic Theatre yesterday, winning a multitude of friends and admirers in his first American picture.
He is Fernand Gravet, famous Continental film star, and the picture is "The King and the Chorus Girl," a delightfully humorous romance, the first film

which the brilliant young Warner Bros. director, Mervyn LeRoy,
has made under his new rank of producer.
"The King and the Chorus Girl"
is glamorous, whimsical comedy at its best. M. Gravet plays the role of a wealthy, prodigal ex-monarch who becomes a Paris
playboy.

BULLDOG DRUMMOND COMES BACK

An adventure mystery that races excitingly from the drop of the first clue through a series of situations alternately romantic, funny,
dangerous and sinister piles up plenty of thrills for "Bulldog Drummond Comes Back," Paramount's second dramatization of the famous "Sapper" McNeill detective character, which is showing at the Queen's Theatre to-day.

The mystery plot is wound about the kidnapping of Drummond's fiancee, lovely Louise Campbell, by a venomous female who is out to revenge herself for Drummond's previous strategy in bringing her villainous lover to the gallows.

John Howard has the role of the swashbuckling detective Drummond who goes after his girl.

With him are always "Algy," played by Reginald Denny, and his butler Tenny, played by E. E. Clive.
They contribute the light comedy
touches in the face of situations
most sinister.

ment of the Lalo Cello Concerto

BRITISH GOVERNMENT STAND PRESSED

Labour Urges Positive Action

WITHHOLD ARMS TO JAPAN?

London, November 17.

“In view of the findings of the Brussels conference, will the British Government recommend to the governments concerned the desirability of withholding all further supplies of arms and war munitions from Japan while continuing to supply China?”

This was the question put by Mr. Arthur Henderson (Lab.) to Lord Cranborne in the House of Commons to-day, and Lord Cranborne replied that the parties to the declaration were at present considering what should be their common attitude in view of the position taken up by Japan regarding their undertakings under the Nine-Power Treaty and the Kellogg Pact. Pending the re-assembling of the Brussels conference it was impossible to estimate the chance of securing agreement on any common action.

Mr. Henderson asked Lord Cranborne to bear in mind that if China is to be helped, positive action must be taken, in addition to passing resolutions (Ministerial) cries of “Go to war!”

Mr. Vyvyan Adams (Cons. asked if any measure of collective pressure against the aggressor in the Far East was contemplated, and Lord Cranborne advised him to put down the question.

Mr. Noel Baker (Lab.) asked if the Government was of the opinion that the Brussels declaration was in any way inconsistent with the Geneva resolution condemning Japan as the aggressor.

CHINESE PLEASED

London, Nov. 17.

Mr. Quo Tai-chi, Chinese Ambassador to Britain has returned to London between the two Brussels conferences, and he and Madame Quo were guests at a banquet to King Leopold of the Belgians at Buckingham Palace. They also attended the Buckingham Palace ball to-night.

In an interview with Reuter, Mr. Quo Tai-chi said he was of the opinion that the Brussels conference took a satisfactory course. The clear and direct reply to Japan's refusal to attend was all the more forcible in view of the restraint, patience and consideration with which the conference had acted towards Japan.

RESPECT FOR TREATIES

“I would emphasize the immense importance of the speeches of the British, American and French delegates which unitedly stressed respect for treaties as the only basis for orderly, civilised life between nations, without which the world must relapse into anarchy.”

Mr. Quo Tai-chi was of the opinion that the unanimity of these speeches was partly meant as an implied reply to the Italo-German-Japanese Pact. He said that unofficial conversations between the delegates had revealed a distinct feeling that the Far Eastern crisis must not be allowed to remain on the plane merely of academic discussion.

Mr. Quo Tai-chi returns to Brussels on Friday.—Reuter.

NO CROSSING MADE YET

Peiping, Nov. 18.

Japanese troops in north Shantung have so far made no attempt to cross the Yellow River, stated an official spokesman who hinted that the offensive was halted to give Han Fu-chu a chance to turn over his province and avoid further bloodshed.—Reuter.

FIGHTING IN KASHAN

Nanking, Nov. 18.

Chinese and Japanese forces in the Kashing area are fighting southwest of Kashing, on the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway while Japanese troops on the Shanghai-Nanking Railway are attacking the Chinese centre at Chengyi, seven miles west of Quinsan, according to Chinese reports.

Japanese warships on the Yangtze are bombarding the Chinese left bank in the vicinity of Fushan.—Reuter.

WEIHSIEN TAKEN

Peiping, Nov. 18.

The Japanese claim the capture of Weihsien in South Hopen. This city is north of Tamingtu and it appears to indicate that considerable clearing up is necessary before the thrust southward can proceed. Weihsien has been the base of the remnants of four divisions attempting to harry the Japanese communications. A spokesman admitted that “several hundreds” red troops are now gathered in Taisan.—Reuter.

CHINESE OFFICIAL CHANGES

Shanghai, Nov. 17.

It is confirmed here that the Chinese Cabinet will, as previously reported by Transocean, be recast in the near future. Marshal Chiang will resign the Presidency of the Executive Yuan, which post, corresponding to that of a Prime Minister, will be taken over by the present Finance Minister, Dr. H. H. Kung. Mr. Wang Ching-wei will take over the post of Vice-President of the Executive Yuan, which post was held concurrently by Dr. Kung. No further changes are contemplated.—Transocean News Service.

HALIFAX TO SEE HITLER TO-DAY

Berlin, Nov. 17.

At the invitation of Herr Hitler, Lord Halifax will leave for Berchtesgaden to-morrow, accompanied by Baron von Neurath. Lord Halifax will presumably see Herr Hitler on Friday afternoon, returning to Berlin in the evening.—Reuter.

BRITISH AGENT TO FRANCO GOVT.

London, Nov. 17.

The first agent appointed to General Franco's Government is Sir Robert Hodgson who has served for many years in the Consular service. His last post was Minister and Consul-General to Albania.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

REDUCTION CAPITAL

On the application of Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. H. C. Lee, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, the reduction of the capital of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Cinema Company, Limited, from $100,000 to half that amount was sanctioned by His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Supreme Court yesterday.

The form of minute proposed to be registered is as follows:—
"The capital of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Cinema Company Limited is $50,000 divided into 10,000 shares of $5 each reduced from the former capital of $100,000 divided into 10,000 shares of $10 each at the date of registration of this minute 4,450 shares of $5 each had been issued and the full amount of $5 had been paid up."

A special resolution of the company has been passed and confirmed to the effect that on such reduction taking effect shares in the capital of the company be consolidated in such a manner that every two of the shares of $5 shall constitute one ordinary $10 share and that the sum of $10 shall be credited as having been paid up upon each existing ordinary share and further that the capital be increased to $100,000 by the creation of 3,862 new ordinary shares of $10 each and 1,138 preference shares of $10 each.

In answer to Mr. Macnamara's submission that certain errors made in the resolution of the company approving of the reduction of the capital be rectified in the Order, His Lordship granted the Order in terms of the draft minute to be submitted as amended by substituting "2,225 existing and issued ordinary shares" for "each existing ordinary share;" the words "and reduced" be dispensed with; and an advertisement once in the Gazette and once in European and Chinese newspapers circulating in the Colony.

His Lordship granted the order sanctioning the reduction of capital subject to the usual conditions and the holding of another company meeting to amend the resolution containing the error.

"HANDS OFF!"

There is something quite quaint about the complaint which the official spokesmen for Japan are making to the effect that the great Powers of the Brussels Conference are guilty of interfering with the avowed object of making trouble in the Far East
by meddling in a dispute which is peculiar to China and Japan.
According to the Japanese conquerors everyone in the world excepting themselves should refrain from taking any practical interest in the continuing undeclared war. A stagnation policy of "Hands Off" should be unanimously adopted.

There is much in the Japanese contention, however, and if they would co-operate with the rest of the world then the policy would read, "Hands Off China," and it would be deserving of the highest commendation. But we will be pardoned a little cynicism when we comment that we do not think such a policy is envisaged
by Japan's rulers.

It will be readily recollected
that when the Japanese commenced their more serious depredations of China and all that China holds dear, a campaign was vigorously commenced and expertly and energetically carried out in the English speaking world
under the slogan, "Hands Off China." This campaign was eminently successful, and a veritable army of eloquent speakers
thronged a thousand platforms
urging the obvious righteousness of this policy. This was before the League of Nations had really disappointed the world by reducing itself to the status of a dialectic society.

There was no means at that time of taking a census of world
opinion on the subject, but judging by the enthusiasm displayed
at the public meetings and the views expressed in the Press,
there was every justification for presuming that in Britain and America there was an overwhelming majority opinion in favour of the "Hands Off China" policy. One nation, and one nation only, made screechingly
articulate its hysterical disapproval, and that nation was Japan.
But in those distant days, almost twenty years ago, the really great Powers were apt to treat Japan
as a bit of a joke. That was quite mischievous and erroneous
as has been proved to the very great detriment of China which has suffered because the world was pleased to suffer Japan, just as some people can suffer fools

gladly. As it takes a clever man to play the fool, so the same applies with a nation, and for so many years Japan was able to fool the world. "Hands Off"— China? Not for Japan!

Whilst the Japanese territorial brigands are bringing up more and more of their mass-murderers
to capture the capital of China,
and whilst the Chinese are rushing troops to defend Nanking
with all their might and main,
Japan has the cool cheek to order
the other Powers to keep out of China till Japan, presumably, has done just what she likes with its people and its policies of production, exchange and administration.

A policy more fantastic or preposterous can scarcely be imagined. But, of course, the Nipponese brain is very fertile—especially when it comes to the matter of telling others what they should do (for the benefit of Japan).

"Hands Off," by all means,
but it must be the policy of
"Hands Off China."

OUR AMBULANCE SERVICE

In our issue of yesterday we commented on two of the crying needs of the Colony, namely the Housing Problem and the need for a new building for Queen's College. There is another very pressing problem that we wish to bring to the attention of His Excellency the Governor, and this may be put under the category of "Social Services."

There are a few motor ambulances operated by the Government for the benefit of the community,
but it must be borne in mind that one always receives a bill for the privilege of using these ambulances. There is, however, one exception and that is in cases of accidents these ambulances are provided free. The Hawpar Ambulance is free—but that, too,
only caters for accidents. What we should like to see is a free ambulance service instituted for the benefit of those who are too
poor to be able to pay any fee
and in this connection we wish to draw attention to the plight
of some of the poorer classes
find themselves in when faced with any emergency. Two nights ago an employee of one of the local public utility companies was seen carrying a very sick baby
in his arms, trying to get a rickshaw to take the child to hospital.
Realising that here was a fine
opportunity to make some easy money, the rickshaw coolie immediately demanded an exorbitant fare and the poor man had to go his way on foot. Just at that moment, however, somebody came on the scene and paid the fare demanded rather than argue with the coolie—every minute counted for the child. We quote this as an example of what must be happening daily—and in a city that is pleased to rank itself amongst the up-to-date towns of the world!

The health problem, like the housing one, demands the immediate attention of the authorities.
In the past these have too often been put on the shelf as being "inconvenient" but we cannot afford any longer to pursue a policy of laissez faire. These two problems must be tackled without further delay and without being unduly pessimistic we foresee the day; unless this is done, when the authorities will be faced with a problem that will be even more serious than the last cholera epidemic. Let us then go ahead with stern clearing and better
medical service for the poor classes, and when we have successfully combatted these two menaces—for as the position is,
menace is the only name to give it—we may then consider giving the prisoners at Stanley better conditions—and possibly spring beds!

ANNUAL REPORT OF BOY SCOUTS' ASSOCIATION

RECORD FIGURES REVEALED

Serious Financial Position

"In contrast with the financial position, the census figures
this year reveal progress in every direction. We are glad to be able to state that our Group and grand totals have this year reached the record figures of 678 and 713 respectively, while as we go to press,
the formation of three additional Groups is well under way," states
the annual report of the Boy Scouts' Association (Hong Kong Branch) for the year 1936.

The report adds that thanks to the increase in staff, which has been maintained during the year,
one or two groups which were in none too sound a position have also been investigated with the result that in some cases the form of registration has been altered to the benefit of the Groups concerned.

In October 1, 1936, the total number of Groups and Troops were 25 and 22 respectively. Wolf Cub Packs and Crews have increased by two in each case, making a total of 10 and 8, respectively.

WOLF CUBS

Of Wolf Cubs, the report states:
"A substantial increase in the strength of the Wolf Cub section of the Association has taken place during the year, two new Packs having been registered, while the appointment of an Acting Assistant Commissioner for Wolf Cubs and a District Commissioner for Hong Kong has done a great deal towards consolidating the administration of Wolf Cub matters generally."

SCOUTS

Referring to the Scouts, the report states the following: "Once again
the support made evident at the annual fixtures proved that the renewed activities as reported last year have not been relaxed. It is interesting to note that in spite of the Troop total having decreased by one, the Scout and Sea Scout totals have slightly increased during the year with every hope of a further increase next year. Efficiency has also been kept up, but although the percentage number of First Class Scouts is fairly good by comparison with other Branches, we feel that an effort must be made to further this during the future, as without doubt the facilities available locally are much greater than in many places."

SEA SCOUTS

Turning to Sea Scouts, the figures have been made with regard to Sea Scouting generally.

ROVERS

Regarding Rover Scouts, the report states: "The figures as shown in the census report with regard to Rover Scouts are somewhat deceiving, little progress being apparent therefrom. In actual fact the figures shown only represent about one half of the practical figures, over one half of the Rover Scouts of the Branch being shown
under the column headed 'Group Officers, Warranted and Acting'.
The shortage of suitable Rover Leaders makes the starting of many new Crews inadvisable, but the existing Crews have been of great help to the Branch during the past year."

The report also deals with the training of Scout officers, Salwan Camp, Tests and Badges, and other activities.

FINANCIAL POSITION

Messrs. Thomson and Company, Accountants of the Association,
submit the following report:

"Last year we reported on the financial position of the Association, pointing out that the surplus account was being seriously reduced. This year we have to report that another deficit of $1,020 has reduced the surplus to $28. This means that your Assets at their present balance Sheet
figure are only $28 more than your Liabilities. When it is considered that the Salwan property
may not be worth the value shown in the Balance Sheet, the position is most serious. Perhaps one of the most disappointing items in the accounts is the great falling off of subscriptions, which last year amounted to $850 and this year have only reached the total of $509."

THANKS

The Association annual report concludes:
"Our thanks are due to the many friends of the Association who have assisted in the success of the past year."

PHILIPPINE REVIEW

Trade With The Philippines

On the basis of the facts which it has developed the Los Angeles
Chamber of Commerce seems to be fully justified in asking, as it does, that as few barriers as possible be placed in the way of trade with the Philippines.

The chamber believes that the present mutual preferential-trade agreement with the islands should be extended at least till June 30, 1946; that a continuing study of trade relations be made in the meantime; and that the present provision for mandatory export duties on goods sent to the United States be changed to make such duties permissive.

Exports from Los Angeles Harbour alone to the Philippine Islands during 1936 amounted to $8,164,000, and for the first four months of this year were $2,413,000, indicating a considerable gain for 1937.

It takes three closely spaced, type-written pages merely to list the classifications into which these goods were divided. Since it is agriculture interests of the nation, and particularly those interested in vegetable and animal oils, which are most vociferous for shutting off Philippine trade, it should be noted that in the list of exports to the Philippines, agricultural products of all sorts take a prominent part and this port even sold to the Philippines $9,000 worth of vegetable oils.

Included in the list were barley, corn, oats, rye, wheat and rice;
flour and meal; other grain preparations; oil cakes and meals; dairy and poultry foods; dried and preserved vegetables; fresh vegetables;
canned vegetables; vegetable preparations; grapefruit, lemons, oranges; other fresh fruits; dried fruits; canned fruits, preserved fruits and preparations; walnuts; other nuts and preparations; dairy products, and honey.

Fresh, preserved and canned meats went over in volume, and fish, especially sardines.

And this is only from one port, when the amounts shipped from other Pacific Coast ports are added, it is plain farmers have a considerable interest in maintaining Philippine trade.

Philippine Independence

With Japan on the warpath, it is easy to imagine a cooling-off process among Philippine independence adherents. For many years there has been a well-formulated and patriotically-conceived effort by native Filipinos, for complete freedom from the United States. It has been a friendly struggle by a people who appreciated the world of good which has been accomplished among them under the guidance of Uncle Sam. Friendly, but none the less vigorous.

Advocates of independence hailed as a great victory the passage in March 1934, of the Tydings-McDuffie bill, and its subsequent signing by President Roosevelt. The bill provides for complete freedom at the close of a ten-year period under Philippine commonwealth government.

It is easy to conceive a new attitude of mind among the Filipinos under present conditions. Japan has greedy eyes; and the islands are just a step from her door. The Tokio government has never felt any too friendly toward the United States' long stay in Eastern territory, and if American military and naval bases were removed, and with them the fear of American intervention, there would be nothing to hinder such an invasion as that now being made in China.

THE GREATNESS OF BRITAIN

King Leopold's Tribute

London, November 17.

His Royal Highness The Duke
of Kent, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Sir John Simon, Mr. Anthony Eden
and heads of the services attended a resplendent banquet at the Guildhall in honour of the King of the Belgians.

King Leopold, in replying to the Lord Mayor's welcome, likened
London to the stage of the world theatre. To London, more than any other place, came the echoes of the anxieties to which the whole world is a prey. Britain, therefore, had special responsibilities as regards the world's affairs, more particularly in economic matters
in which lie the root of the international problems besetting the world.

The British Empire was so important a part of the human race
that it must realize more clearly than the other nations how closely the fate of mankind was bound up with its own; consequently their understanding in universal problems is so profound that it is permissible to hope that Britain will play a dominant part in the search for a solution to the economic problems besetting the world to-day.

Reuter.

Our subscribers, officers, Scouters; the many examiners who have cheerfully given their time to test the results of the training given to the boys; the numerous members of the public who have assisted with our displays and rallies, including the parents and friends of the actual Groups who do so much to assist the Scouters
in their work with the individual members.

We feel that it would be unjust
to close this report without making a special acknowledgement of the tremendous amount of new willingly given to the Association and Groups by the members of the China Fleet Troop of Deep Sea Scouts under the leadership of Pay Commander M. K. Lawder, O.B.E. Without their help many of our activities would have to be curtailed, and it is apparent that Scouting in the East and Far East owes a large debt of gratitude to the Deep Sea Scouts."

STATE BALL FOR KING LEOPOLD

Modern Dance Band At Buckingham Palace

London, Nov. 17.

When the King and Queen gave a ball at Buckingham Palace tonight in honour of King Leopold,
the guests danced to the strains
of a modern dance band instead of the usual string band which played at former Palace balls. Over a thousand guests, including many members of the Royal family, danced fox-trots, waltzes and other modern dances in the great Ballroom.—Reuter.

GUILDHALL LUNCHEON

London, Nov. 17.

The King of the Belgians drove in state to Guildhall to-day,
where he received an address of welcome and was entertained to luncheon.

Replying to the toast in his honour proposed by the Lord Mayor, King Leopold said: "to your city more than to any other there come echoes of those anxiety of which the whole world is a prey.
Political objectives are of concern
only to certain sections of mankind, but a better ordering of economic life is of interest to mankind as a whole. We are faced with a world which is complicated by various national problems. To solve these difficulties
we need a clear view of economic realities, seen with a dispassionate eye and divorced from every other consideration.

The British Empire represents so important a part of the human race that it cannot help but realise
more clearly than any other nation
how closely the fate of mankind is bound up with its own. That is why your understanding of great universal problems is so profound,
and why it is permissible to hope that Great Britain may play a prominent part in the search for a solution of the major economic difficulties.—British Wireless.

TATARESCU FORMS CABINET

Bucharest, Nov. 18.

Premier Tatarescu has reconstituted the Cabinet which resigned recently with slight changes.
It is almost an entirely liberal Ministry.—Reuter.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH

LARGE CONGREGATION HEARS RECTOR'S TRIBUTE TO LATE MR. STEPHENS

London, Nov. 18. A beautiful memorial service for the late Mr. Pembroke Stephens, "Daily Telegraph" correspondent in China who lost his life when he was struck by machine-gun bullets while watching the Nantao hostilities from a vantage point in the French Concession on Armistice Day, was held in St. Bride's, the "journalists' church" in Fleet Street.

The church was crowded and among those present was Dr. W. C. Chen, representing the Chinese Ambassador to London, who sent a wreath. Baron Tomli, who was accompanied by the Japanese Naval and Military attaches, represented the Japanese Ambassador, who also sent a wreath. The British Legion was represented by Capt. Anderson. Lord Camrose, chief proprietor of the "Daily Telegraph" and "Morning Post" and all chiefs of departments of the paper attended, and all the London and chief provincial papers were represented.

The Rector of St. Bride's, the Rev. C. B. Mortlock, paid tribute to the late Mr. Stephens who was a splendid example of the injunction, "Whatsoever they hand findeth do and do with all thy might," which was among the chief characteristics of a good Christian.

The service concluded with a beautiful rendering of Chopin's funeral march.—Reuter.

NO BREAKDOWN IN NERVE OF CHINESE NATION

HEROIC RESISTANCE IS ENCOURAGING

"Both Sides Having Tug-Of-War"

London, Nov. 18. In a leading article on the progress of the Sino-Japanese war the "Daily Telegraph" states that the Japanese have not had the walk-over they expected while inferior equipment has not prevented the Chinese from showing gallantry at least equal to that of their invaders and there is no sign of a breakdown in the nerve of the Chinese nation which the Japanese air raids had intended to produce.

There was something encouraging as well as heroic in the Chinese resistance for it demonstrates that the ruthless campaign of "frightfulness" would be as ineffective here as in the Far East, the paper says. Regretting that the two countries appear to be faced with a long war the "Daily Telegraph" suggests that both sides are having a tug-of-war simply gaining second wind for changing to a more permanent grip.

Referring to mediation, the paper states that without it China is in no mood to sue for peace or Japan to offer reasonable terms. The nation wide support for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had shown China to be more than a mere geographical unity. On the other hand there was some doubt as to where the centre of Japan's political unity stands or who could empower negotiations to define her war aims.

Asking who directs the opinion of the Army, the paper suggests that its move to establish Imperial Headquarters should at least fix the responsibility and the term may at last be placed to the distance Japan wishes to advance into China and the area she wishes to devour for the present.—Reuter.

JAPANESE AIRCRAFT

Renew Bombing Of C.K.R.

Canton, Nov. 18: After a respite of ten days, Japanese aircraft renewed their bombing of the Canton-Kowloon Railway to-day.

Three planes took off from an aircraft-carrier anchored off Chekwan at 8.20 o'clock this morning and flew to the stations at Tintongwai and Pingwu, respectively 117 and 123 kilometres south of Canton, where they released six high explosives.

A number of telegraph poles were destroyed but no damage was done to the railway track. All trains between Canton and Hong Kong ran as usual.—Central News.

RAILWAY BOMBED AGAIN

Canton, Nov. 18. Three Japanese planes visited the Chinese section of the Canton-Kowloon Railway this morning, dropping six bombs between Pingwu and Tintongwai. No details are available at present as to whether any damage resulted. The Chinese press last night reported that the Japanese aircraft carrier is now back in South China waters.—Reuter.

SECOND ALARM

Canton, Nov. 18. The second air raid alarm sounded at 1.15 p.m. and the populace waited till 2.50 p.m. for the "all clear." No details are available at present except that on this occasion the Japanese planes did not appear over the Canton-Kowloon Railway.—Reuter.

MILITARY COURTS IN PALESTINE

Jerusalem, November 18: The military courts authorised by the British Government to deal with the present situation in Palestine began jurisdiction to-day. Two courts were inaugurated in Jerusalem and Haifa to try those found unlawfully carrying arms, rioting or sabotage.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

British Navy's Additions

London, Nov. 17. It is announced in Commons that in addition to two cruisers and one submarine, whose construction will be commenced in the Royal Dock in December, it is anticipated that the following ships will be ordered from private firms by the end of the present financial year—four cruisers, eight destroyers, three patrol vessels, two escort vessels, three patrol vessels, one destroyer depot ship, ten motor torpedo boats and six boom defence vessels.—British Wireless.

SPANISH WAR FRONTS

Complete Calm Prevails

Paris, Nov. 18. Reports received here from Salamanca state that complete calm prevails on the various fronts in Spain. From the Aragon Front it is reported that a great number of militia men have surrendered to the Nationalist troops.

Large scale troop movements behind the Nationalist lines, however, suggest that the prevailing calm is only the "calm before the storm," and that a new large offensive is imminent. Nationalist Headquarters decline to make any statement from which the possible section of the front, where the blow will be struck, could be guessed. In order to prevent the Republicans from strengthening the section in question. No forecast as to the coming events in Spain is therefore possible.—Transocean.

NATIONALIST POSITIONS SHELLED

Madrid, Nov. 18. According to a war bulletin issued by the Defence Committee here, it states that the Red troops shelled Nationalist positions on various sections of the eastern front, and that a successful sortie was effected at Pozoblanco where the Reds succeeded in making valuable captures of war material.—Transocean.

EVACUATION OF NON-COMBATANTS

Madrid, Nov. 18. The Madrid paper "Claridad," organ of the Labour Union, demands a wholesale and compulsory evacuation of all non-combatants from Madrid. The paper states that the lives of the civil population will be seriously endangered when the Nationalists launch their expected large-scale attack on Madrid, and the Government should therefore order the compulsory evacuation of all civilians who have so far refused to leave the city.—Transocean.

RECOGNITION OF FRANCO BY JAPAN

Tokyo, Nov. 18. Japan is extending recognition of the Franco regime in Spain on November 25, says the "Asahi Shimbun," which adds: "With Japan recognising General Franco, and Italy and Germany recognising Manchukuo, the anti-Comintern bloc will be greatly strengthened." The newspaper states that at yesterday's meeting of the Cabinet, Mr. Hirota explained that the Franco regime some time ago requested recognition by Japan, and Italy and Germany made informal representation on the same subject. The statesman declared that after careful investigation the Foreign Office found General Franco's policy fully agreed with that of Japan, and that the Franco regime was "carrying on a holy war against the Comintern and is in the forefront of the anti-Comintern battleline." Therefore, Japan intended to extend formal recognition of General Franco's government.—Reuter.

STUDY OF CHINESE CHARACTERS

Interesting Lecture

Dr. Erwin Reiser in a talk at the Y.M.C.A. last evening pointed out that the study of the Chinese character was not as hard as one thought, and with some scientific solution learning could be made very simple. The lecturer spoke on the subject "The Man Who Invented Chinese Characters."

BRITAIN-U.S. TRADE AGREEMENT

NEGOTIATIONS TO BEGIN SHORTLY

Exploratory Work For Over Year

Washington, Nov. 18. Mr. Cordell Hull, U.S. Secretary of State, announced that the United States contemplates negotiation of a reciprocal trade agreement with Britain. He invited interested persons in the United States to submit suggestions to the State Department concerning what products should be included in the treaty. This is the first formal step towards the conclusion of the Anglo-American Trade Agreement and climaxes over a year of exploratory work by the two Governments.

The actual start of negotiations is expected within a few weeks but must be preceded by public hearings at which interested persons can state their objections to reductions in American tariff being made in any particular class of goods. According to the "Associated Press" there is good reason to believe that the British Government has probably consented to granting some American products treatment equal to that which it now accords to goods from British Dominions under the Empire preference believing that more intimate commercial ties between Britain and the United States would set an example to other nations to join in a general movement for the reduction of world trade barriers.—Reuter.

London, Nov. 18. The Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain expressed pleasure in informing the House of Commons that informal exploratory discussions with a view to reaching an agreed basis for negotiation of an Anglo-American trade agreement had reached a point at which both countries feel able to announce that negotiations for such an agreement were contemplated. He added that the announcement marks a definite and well recognised step in the United States procedure of negotiations.—Reuter.

CAPE-LONDON FLIGHT

Capetown, Nov. 18. Flying Officer Clouston and Mrs. Kirby Green took off at 6 a.m. G.M.T. on a record flight attempt to London.

OFF TO BROKEN HILL. Johannesburg, Nov. 18: Clouston arrived at 9.55 G.M.T. and left for Broken Hill at 10.35 and hopes to land at Kismu about 1.30 a.m. G.M.T. to-morrow and arrive at Khartoum at 7 a.m. and at Cairo at 2 p.m.—Reuter.

Broken Hill, Nov. 18: Clouston arrived at 2.55 p.m. remaining until 10 p.m. G.M.T.—Reuter.

SPANISH LOYALISTS ANNOYED

Appointment Of Agents By Britain

London, Nov. 18. "Profound displeasure" at the British Government's action in appointing agents to Nationalist Spain is expressed in a note transmitted by the Spanish Ambassador in London to the Foreign Office. The note considers the action as implying abandonment of a policy abstaining from all official relations with those revolting against the legally established Government.—Reuter.

NEW AIR SERVICE

Between Japan And Mandated Islands In South Pacific

Tokyo, Nov. 18: The Ministry of Communications to-day declared that passenger and air mail service will be inaugurated between Japan and her mandated islands in the south Pacific. The service will begin in January, 1938, while a test flight will be made next month.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

EXODUS FROM NANKING

Continues Unabated

BRITISH RESIDENTS UNPERTURBED

Nanking, Nov. 18: British residents are generally unperturbed by the evacuation of the Chinese Government offices which will be completed by November 19. Half of the Britons are going up river and about twenty persons including a few women are remaining. Taking advantage of the wet weather keeping off aircraft the general exodus continues unabated by road and river. Chinese troops continue to pour through to the Nanking front while refugees from the east are beginning to appear in rain swept streets, miserable, cold and hungry carrying a few belongings and occasionally driving water buffaloes.—Reuter.

GENERALISSIMO RESIGNS

Shanghai, Nov. 18. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has relinquished the Presidency of the Executive Yuan to devote his entire attention to military affairs. He is succeeded by Dr. H. H. Kung, who is concurrently Finance Minister. Mr. Wang Chung-hui becomes Vice-President of the Executive Yuan and retain the office of Foreign Minister.—Reuter.

JAPANESE WAR CASUALTIES

Shanghai, Nov. 18. According to an official announcement the Japanese army casualties in the Shanghai area, excluding the Yangtze and Hangchow Bay region, are 9,078 dead, including ten per cent from illness. ## TURN OFF THE HEAT

HOTTEST NOVEMBER DAY IN SEVEN YEARS!

From all quarters yesterday the remark, "Isn't it very hot for this time of the year" was heard and enquiries from Mr. G. S. P. Heywood, Assistant Director of the Royal Observatory, elicited the information that the maximum temperature at 4 p.m. yesterday was 85 degs. This figure has not been exceeded since November 1, 1930 and Mr. Heywood said that it was very unusual for the second half of November when the temperature, as a rule, is on the downward trend. The minimum temperature yesterday was 74.2 degs., this reading being taken at 6 a.m. By way of comparison it is interesting to note that the maximum temperature on Wednesday was 81 degs., while the lowest reading on that day was 73 degs. The Colony is again a little backward insofar as the rainfall figures are concerned. The total since January 1, is 80.86 inches as against an average of 83.40 inches.

PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE

An interesting address on photography was delivered by Dr. H. Roeschelsen at the Sailors' and Soldiers' Home yesterday evening. The subject was "Treatment of Enlargement Papers."

Serious injuries were suffered by Pak Pun-sang, a coolie, when he was struck by a trolley loaded with iron bars while at work at Holt's Wharf on Wednesday. He was taken to the Kowloon Hospital.

It is learned that an inquiry into the death of the late Miss Eva Thomas Tam who was killed in a motor-car accident which occurred on October 31 last, will be conducted at the Central Magistracy on Tuesday next commencing at 2.30 p.m. It will be recalled that the deceased was in a car driven by Mr. K. A. Bidmead, Assistant Superintendent of Police, returning from Repulse Bay.

The car crashed 80 feet down the embankment at the corner of Victoria and Sassoon Roads at about 11.25 p.m. on the day in question.

SPLENDID FIRE DISPLAY

myriad of interested spectators saw the events from every available vantage point in the surrounding blocks of houses.

Amongst the distinguished guests present were Lady Northcote, Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall and Misses Kotewall, Mr. Justice Lindsell, Mr. C. G. Perdue, D.I.G.P., Misses Elisabeth and Alethea Knatchbull-Hugessen, Hon. Dr. D. J. Valentine, Colonel and Mrs. N. M. S. Irwin, Mr. C. Champkin and Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy. H.E. the Governor arrived punctually at 3 p.m. and was received by Hon. Mr. King and Mr. Fitz-Henry, and after officers of the Brigade had been presented to him, conducted an inspection of the force.

MOTOR ESCAPE DRILL

The first event of the display was the final of the Motor Escape Competition, Drill, in which two crews, Wanchai "A" and "B" took part. The silver cup presented for this event was won by the latter team, their time being 2 mins. 48 secs. The outline of the drill was to dash to the base of the drill tower at the given signal, pitch the fire escapes, rescue two dummies from the fifth floor by lowering lines and two men on the third floor by carrying them down the escape, and get a hydrant to work from the third floor and revolve a target on the ground.

The final of the Motor Pump Competition Drill, in which Central "A" and Terminus "A" competed, was won by the former in the time of 2 mins. 15 secs. In this event, a motor pump was driven to a position near the canvas water tank, where two sets of hoses were assembled and got to work on revolving targets, after which the hoses and other equipment were straightened and packed. For this event, a shield was presented by the Fire Insurance Association of Hong Kong.

The Hook Ladder Competition Drill final saw four teams taking part, Kowloon, Terminus, Central "A" and "B." The last named crew won in the time of 2 mins. 12-4/5 secs.

DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration which created a great deal of interest was that in which six men, all wearing oxygen breathing apparatus, entered and remained for several minutes in a smoke chamber. The apparatus was strapped in front of each man, and consisted of an oxygen chamber with controls, a tube by which the gas was inhaled and protective goggles for the eyes. Its value and utility were sufficiently made evident when the men emerged perfectly safe and with no ill effects.

The programme consisted also of a demonstration of the turntable fire escape, one of the Brigade's latest acquisitions, and a practical drill by members of the Canton Fire Brigade now undergoing training in Hong Kong.

"HOME CALL"

The feature of the afternoon's display, however, was a complete fire-fighting exhibition showing the development of a fire from the incipient stage to a large-scale conflagration. The first stage was the "Home Call," which means that the fire can be dealt with by the local Fire Station; the second stage was the "District Call," which signifies that the fire is spreading and further assistance is required; the third alarm, or "Brigade Call,"

FISHING JUNKS RANSACKED BY JAPANESE

Property Stolen

ALLEGED ATTACKS IN CHINESE WATERS

Two incidents concerning alleged attacks on junks by Japanese warships have been reported to the police.

Li Tsau-ming, 59-year-old master of a fishing junk told the police at Aberdeen that property to the total value of about $620 was destroyed by Japanese who boarded his craft in Chinese waters. In his report he said that on Armistice Day he left Shaikwan with a crew of 12 on board for fishing. That evening, in the vicinity of Sam Mun-kwan, he saw a Japanese warship, which was near his craft that he could see the figure 13 painted on her bow.

Seventeen Japanese, some dressed in khaki and others in white, boarded a sampan and rowed towards him. Fifteen boarded his junk armed with daggers and axes and ransacked the craft.

Two cannons valued at $500 were thrown into the sea. Two rifles and 150 rounds of ammunition were taken by the Japanese when they left his ship.

ANOTHER CASE

Another alleged robbery by sailors from a Japanese warship was brought to light when Leung Fat-sing, master of a fishing junk returned to the Colony and made a report to the police yesterday.

He said that while he was in Chinese waters about noon on November 14, a Japanese trawler approached his vessel, and 15 sailors boarded the junk, armed with revolvers, axes and daggers. They made a search of the junk, and ransacked it, finally leaving with arms, ammunition and money to the value of $1,283.

Leung said no-one was harmed, and his vessel was not damaged.

brings the entire Brigade into action, showing that the fire has got out of control and all available assistance is required. This event, which provided a great thrill for all present, called into function all the different aspects of fire-fighting work, and the excellent manner in which it was carried out yesterday testifies to the thorough and efficient training of the whole Brigade.

At the conclusion of the display, H.E. the Governor presented the prizes and certificates.

GOVERNOR'S APPRECIATION. In a short speech, His Excellency expressed his appreciation of the work of the Brigade, a practical example of which he had had the opportunity to witness that afternoon. He was struck with the general keenness of the Force and the good results they had attained. It was proof, he said, of the hard work and excellent instruction of the officers.

His Excellency was presented with a blackwood paper weight inlaid with the Cap Badge of the Brigade, in silver, and later took the salute at a drive past of all appliances in Gloucester Road.

Dr. J. H. McElney reported to the police that he knocked down a boy, Kwok King-chiu, aged 13, when he ran across Chater Road, and struck the side of the car on Wednesday. The boy received slight injuries and was taken to the Queen Mary Hospital.

CRICKET NOTES

FINE FIELDING BY INDIANS

Many Dropped Catches By Craigengower

(BY NEW L.B.W.)

A disappointing display by a reputedly strong batting side was given in the course of the cricket matches played last week. I refer to the double collapse of the Kowloon Cricket Club in their two-day game, with the Hong Kong Cricket Club. There are no two ways of looking at the Kowloonites' performance but I fancy most people who judge a game solely by the figures on the score-board will express surprise when I say that the I.R.C. batting against the Craigengower Cricket Club was not as impressive as 205 for 8, declared, might lead one to believe. The fielding of the home side, who had four regular men away, was, with the exception of A. K. Ismail and Arthur Hamson, indescribably wretched. The Indians' first pair, S. A. Ismail and K. Nazarin, put up sixty-odd runs but before the score was one-third of that, four catches, three at least more or less "dolly" ones had been put on the carpet.

Late in Nazarin's innings he dealt faithfully with five over-pitched balls sent down by A. K. Ismail and took 20 off that over, but for the rest his rate of scoring was decidedly short.

With the first three C.C.C. men, A. R. H. Esmail, F. K. Lee and A. K. Ismail, offering stout resistance, the match should have been a draw. The latter made some nice and crisp shots, going for 1100 successfully, but after he left there was a complete collapse and the Indians won with a little to spare. The brilliant fielding of the Indians was a pleasure to watch and if they keep this form they will finish very near the top of the League again this season.

A fine display was given by the Club batsmen on Armistice Day when they hit the Kowloon bowlers all over the field to the tune of 291 runs before declaring for six wickets. Kowloon, with the exception of Donald Anderson, were at full strength, but Harry Owen-Hughes was in devastating form and his century which paved the way to his side's big score, was the result of a fine innings. Personally I did not see him batting and I am told that he gave a chance in the fifties, while another report says his knock was chanceless. In any case it was agreed that it was a fine one. J. E. Richardson who only plays for the Club in friendly games, contributed a hard-hit 50, while F. Marshall's 44 featured some good shots to leg. Robble Lee was the best of the Mainland bowlers and his analysis 19.4-3-73-4 represented some steady and, at times, dangerous bowling. There is no need to recapitulate the story of K.C.C.'s double failure save to repeat that but for G. J. O'Brien they would have done even worse. Holden bowled well in both innings for the Club as did John Pearce. The former's departure from the Colony will be a very great loss to the Club.

Among the cricketers who, coming from Home with a good reputation, have failed to reproduce their form on local wickets, or at least take a very long time to do so, must be numbered Lieutenant McLagan, of the Seaforth Highlanders. Lt. McLagan has, I understand, performed creditably in quite good-class cricket at Home but though his class is perceptible at a glance, he has done very little since he came out last year. His latest failure was in the Army versus Navy match on Saturday, when, going in first with Lt. Weedon, he was caught by P. O. Paxton of the bowling of C.P.O. Page for a "duck."

Though they lost, the Hong Kong University Alumni Association had a most enjoyable first match against the Club de Recreio at King's Park. Most, if not all, the cricketers members of the Alumni play for other clubs such as Craigengower, Recreio and Kowloon, and therefore any question of the Alumni running a team in the League is as yet very remote. They can, however, put out a very strong team for a friendly match. Donald Anderson, who had made a century for the K.C.C. seconds on Armistice Day against the Hong Kong Club juniors, failed this time, being bowled by a fast one from

ENGLAND BEATS WALES

Fine Game Witnessed
By Large Crowd

London, Nov. 17.

Before a crowd of 35,000 spectators, England to-day defeated Wales in the International soccer championship at Middlesbrough by the odd goal in three after the score had been deadlocked at 1-1 at half time.

The weather was pleasant and the ground conditions perfect when the teams lined up as previously announced. They were as follows:

England.—Woodley; Spratton, Barkas; Crayston, Cullis, Copping; Matthews, Hall, Mills, Goulden and Brook.

Wales.—Gray; Turner, Hughes; Murphy, Hanford, Richards; Hopkins, Leslie, Jones, Perry, Bryn and Morris.

MAGNIFICENT GOAL

Barkas, the English captain, won the toss and took advantage of a stiff breeze. England pressed in the opening stages, but in the fifteenth minute Wales electrified the crowd with a magnificent goal after a breakaway. Bryn Jones passed to Perry, who although harassed, scored high into the net from outside the penalty area.

Wales was then dominant, but Matthews equalised in the 28th minute, 'outpacing' Hughes and crossing the ball into the goal-mouth. He followed up and forced the ball into the net in a melee.

At half-time the score was 1-1.

PERRY INJURED

Perry, the Irish centre-forward, was injured in the right knee in

HOME SOCCER SENSATION

Attempt To Bribe
Goalkeeper

Biggest soccer news recently was that an offer had been made by members of a mysterious syndicate in writing to Biddlestone, Aston Villa's goalkeeper, offering to pay him £750 "for every match you are prepared to lose at home."

The letter, which was posted in Ireland, said that the syndicate intended "to bring about a few 'shock' results (for experience is that the shockers upset the coupons)."

Biddlestone reported the letter immediately to the club officials and it is understood that neither the club nor the police are to take any action.

Clenching his right fist, Biddlestone said: "I know what I should do if they came to sound me, and they wouldn't pay me £750 for that."

the 55th minute, but resumed after attention.

England supplied good football in the match which, however, did not reach the standard expected. Hall scored the winning goal for England in the 80th minute with a low left-foot drive.

A Cup-tie atmosphere developed in the closing stages of the game when the Welshmen had several narrow escapes.

The final whistle blew with England winning by 2-1.—

HONG KONG'S POSITION IN PRESENT TROUBLETrade And Revenue
Increases Reported

HOUSE OF COMMONS ANSWERS

London, Nov. 17.

Mr. William Ormsby-Gore, Secretary of State for the Colonies, replying in the House of Commons to-day to a question by Mr. A. C. Moreing (Cons.) regarding Hong Kong, expressed satisfaction that the latest reports from Hong Kong showed that the Sino-Japanese conflict had not yet resulted in any decline in its trade.

The monthly imports and exports during the recent period showed a considerable rise over the monthly average for the year, and a still greater rise over the comparable months of 1936.

After quoting figures from January to September last, the Colonial Secretary said it should, however, be borne in mind that the Colony at present handled a considerable quantity of imports which would normally have gone to Shanghai, though it was scarcely possible to estimate the quantity.

Statistics were not available showing the number of Chinese who were refugees in the Colony, though the number was considerable.

British refugees from Shanghai numbered approximately 3,500 women and 300 men, of whom the majority had made private arrangements for accommodation. Up to 750 had been maintained in the Government centres, but at the present time the number was about 400.

Lord Cranborne added that he was unaware that the Concession was otherwise subject to any interference.

Again replying to Mr. Moreing, regarding the present administration of the Peiping-Tientsin area since the Japanese occupation, Lord Cranborne mentioned the formation last September of the joint Peiping-Tientsin Peace Preservation, under the chairmanship of Mr. Koo Ling-wel. The Association had been assisted by a number of Japanese advisers. The positions of responsibility appeared to be held by Chinese who were prepared to work with the Japanese authorities, and were considered by the latter to have the confidence of the populace. The administration appeared to have been accepted quietly.

Mr. Ormsby-Gore said he was now informed that the revenue up to November 15 exceeded the estimate for the full year and was $3,000,000 more than that collected up to the same date in 1936.

It was estimated that Government would have at December 31 surplus assets of approximately $12,000,000 which were mainly liquid assets.

There is, at present, no sign of economic depression in the community generally," said Mr. Ormsby-Gore. "Though the general cost of living has risen, as was to be expected in the circumstances, it appears, despite the difficulties of its position, that Hong Kong is succeeding in maintaining its commercial life."

IN NORTH CHINA

London, Nov. 17.

Mr. Anthony Eden had received no report indicating that any obstacles had been placed in the way of trade by merchants in the British Concession at Tientsin, stated Lord Cranborne in the House of Commons to-day, replying to a question by Mr. A. C. Moreing.

WORLD'S TRADE
EXPANDINGMr. Norman's Hopes
For Future.NEED FOR FREER MOVEMENT

Mr. Montagu Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, in a speech recently at the Bankers' and Merchants' dinner at the Mansion House, said that the trade of Great Britain, the trade of the Empire, and the trade of the world were all increasing in one way or another.

"International trade," said Mr. Norman, "is somehow circumventing the obstacles which are imposed on it on all sides, obstacles of whose removal we hear so much but of which, alas, we find so little evidence."

"We have had high hopes and a long period of disappointments. Changes which we in the City can make are negligible. We must rely on the Chancellor."

"We assure him that his requests from time to time will govern the conduct of our business. We prefer that he should make his requests as such rather than by means of legislation—that is too foreign a method."

Mr. Montagu had said earlier that so far as they in the City were concerned the year had been one of disappointments and dangers. For the most part they had excited interest here rather than alarm.

PROFITS ABROAD NEEDED

"Here we have lived in quiet, we have had no shocks," he said. "We have observed what has been going on elsewhere, and though I maintain that we prefer peace at home to profit abroad, nevertheless, during the past year few of us, I think, can complain of the profits."

"What we need is to make less of our profits at home, or at any rate more of our profits abroad. We do indeed need a revival of the free movement of goods everywhere throughout the world, from China to Peru, and we need further employment of that part of our industry which is designed for the export trade."

"We need this foreign trade and this foreign business because it is in particular the raw materials of the discount market."

No party of the financial machines, of which the discount market was in many ways the most important, he said, had suffered a harder knock during the past year than the discount market.

"Though I cannot see through the mists of the future with any certainty whatever," continued Mr. Norman, "I have a hope that perhaps by some miracle foreign bills may come again."

CAMOUFLAGE

Mr. W. Wedgwood Benn asked if Lord Cranborne thought the Chinese nation accepted this camouflage, and Lord Cranborne replied that he was given to understand that they accepted it, but he suggested the setting down of this question if Mr. Wedgwood Benn wanted to ask a further question.

Mr. Wedgwood Benn then asked if Lord Cranborne accepted the Japanese view that this so-called Peace Preservation Association was that they accepted it, but he suggested the setting down of this question if Mr. Wedgwood Benn wanted to ask a further question.

SHIPOWNER'S
£130,696

Claim Against State

A 78-year-old shipowner, who was said to have borrowed money from his friends to finance a shipping company's claim against the Board of Trade, appeared at Stockton bankruptcy court recently for public examination with a deficiency of £130,696.

He is Jacob Kruse Muller Hessler,
of Esk House, Elm-grove, West Hartlepool, carrying on business
at Shipping Chambers, West Hartlepool. Norwegian by birth, he has lived in West Hartlepool since 1871 and was naturalised in 1898.

Gross liabilities, amounted to £144,366, of which £130,742 was expected to rank for dividend, and assets were given as £45.

Hessler said that between 1915
and 1916 he promoted with another person two shipping companies.
An order for compulsory liquidation
of one company was made in 1926.

The liquidation had not been completed owing to a claim by the company against the Board of Trade, for interference in the company's use of its ships and for exceptional depreciation in the value of the ships. The company had lost about £220,000 on this account. He had spent every penny he had prosecuting the claim which had not been admitted.

The Sassoon stable will add another classic to their long list of victories when Happy Eve annexes the 12 mile event (Hong Kong St. Leger) for griffins of this season. This bay mare is undoubtedly superior to any of the other entrants and should win comfortably. Expansion Time and Havoc Eve will probably finish behind Happy Eve, but I believe the grey from the Li Po Chun stable will once again beat the Sassoon second string. King's Coronation, Scenic View and Rob Roy are probable starters, of which the latter is about the best in view of his present condition.

BARRIER HANDICAP

A very well matched field should face the starter in this "A" Class Australian Race over six furlongs, with several ponies worth considering. In spite of the weight Electron has an excellent chance as this grand old bay seems to have regained a little lost form and ran a great race two meetings ago. Centre Court will be the real danger in view of the impressive gallop on Wednesday morning and the fact that this pony has more than once done well against the best in this class. Able Amazon and Double Finesse should not be neglected though personally I believe the latter will not stand the distance as well as Able Amazon.

An outsider worth following is Blandford. Though somewhat slow in getting into stride after the gate goes up this animal has a very powerful finish and appears quite fit at the moment. This pony did a very impressive gallop last Wednesday and finished full of running.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

Harvest View and Tyne, both recently demoted to the "C" Class, have been allotted top weight but this will not put them entirely out of the race. Harvest View should finish close up and will extend King's Lead. This latter representative from the Dynasty stable is about the best in the field and should start a firm favourite. Boolat Bay ran exceptionally well in a sprint race at the last meeting and with 4 lbs. less in weight to handle should do well over this mile course. Soldier of China is in at a nice weight, 150 lbs., and will be racing over a handy distance, consequently should be the best bet for those looking for something to pay a good dividend. Aplias is still not quite ready whereas Vira will probably fall to stay with the others.

NEW BRIDGE HANDICAP

There is considerable talk about this event (approximately five furlongs) being an easy thing for Derby Day but with all due respect to this flyer from the Chau stable I do not believe she is unbeatable, as in a sprint race of this nature and with a field of about 10 runners the start is everything and one or two ponies may jump off before Derby Day. This bay mare, however, is about the best bet and, given an even break at the gate, should win. Saucy Face has consistently placed in the last few outings and has always been in the lead for most of the way, so the distance this time should prove just right. Vixen Tor and Australian Boy are both good sprinters and if well served in the jockey department will be right there at the finish. This race incidentally is the first leg of the Daily Double.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

The champion sibs of 1936 and 1937, Rose Evelyn and Gordito respectively, have been called upon to give weight to all the other entrants and of the two I prefer the former. Rose Evelyn has returned some splendid training times and should be thereabouts at the finish. The opposition will come from Laughing Buddha, Night View and Amberley. I have no faith in Commencement Bay who has proved to be very unreliable, but for those who have never failed to put a modest bet one every time this grey has started I would recommend continuing the practice as one never knows when this pony may decide to have a go at it. Centre-forward has shown nothing in training but Royal Highness seems to be getting into condition again and with the low weight may spring a surprise.

TAIPO HANDICAP

This is the second leg of the Daily Double and a race for Novice Jockeys. On paper Mr. S. L. Yuen is due for another win as he will be riding Yum Sing. Ebony Idol has been very near on many occasions and it will not surprise me at all to see this black win. Racing Strain did a useful gallop one morning last week and given a

"THE GOOD EARTH"

Executive and Legislative Councils and many leading residents. We have all read the novel by Pearl Buck and thoroughly enjoyed it, but the screen adaptation is a revelation. Paul Muni, as the humble Chinese farmer, Wang Lung, played his part to perfection. He was the farmer to the very letter, but one cannot help thinking that the reason why he excelled himself was because he knew that the feminine lead, taken by Miss Lulu Rainer, was also done flawlessly. As Muni was the perfect farmer, so Miss Rainer was the perfect slave girl, and in the course of the picture one wondered many a time how the two lead-players, as well as other members of the cast, went so thoroughly Chinese for the occasion.

And when we are handing out the bouquets, we must not forget the people who photographed the picture and those responsible for the sound reproduction. "The Good Earth" turned out to be everything the advance notices claimed it to be and we venture to suggest that not a little of its success was due to good team work on the part of all connected with its production.

Last but not the least a word of praise for the excellent arrangements made by the management of the King's Theatre. Rarely had Hong Kong seen such a tremendous "first night" crowd yet everything went off without a flaw—proof of perfect organisation.

addressed you, questions, and discussion will be allowed, not on the subject of Pacifism, but on the nature and working of the Peace Pledge Union only. If this meeting agrees to form a Group of the Union, other opportunities will be organised for the more general purpose of discussing Pacifism, but please bear in mind, discussion at this meeting is limited to the subject of the Peace Pledge Union.

HISTORY OF UNION

Mr. Spreckley began by giving a brief history of how the Peace Pledge Union came to be founded and said that within the last two years the membership had risen to over 150,000.

The Union, he said, was striving to bring about a new spirit among mankind, a new idea, or the old idea brought up to date. The only possible way to do that was to start with the individual, right at the very bottom. The individual mind and heart had to be changed. The idea that for this purpose the leaders of the world had to be converted to pacifism first was wrong.

The movement, he said, did not boast any policy, nor any hard and fast rules. All they were doing was to be preparing the ground in which to plant the seed from which he hoped a system based on Pacifism would grow.

ONE PRINCIPLE

The movement was founded on the one principle of the oneness of the human race. It was the duty of each individual to treat all human beings with the same amount of help and understanding and sympathy, because all the world's troubles to-day were due to the lack of understanding of other people's difficulties. That was the pacifist idea.

The objects of the Union were twofold. One was to create a pacifist public opinion by putting it in front of people and leaving it to them to think it over and the other was to form a structure wherein Pacifism could be evolved more and more within the organisation.

A pacifist, said the speaker, had to renounce war under all circumstances even to the point of going before a firing squad.

After the meeting several sympathisers signed up as members.

good jockey may give the others a stiff run. Philanderer and Ehemgency Call are the best of the remaining entries and both stand a fair chance.

NEWCASTLE HANDICAP

The last event of the day is a six furlongs sprint for "C" Class Australian ponies. I anticipate a very close finish between Violet Queen, Twilight Star and Discovery Bay, though Brutus is another one worth following. These four are quite evenly matched and whichever ever pony wins should pay fairly well. Possible outsiders are Rocthy and Beat That.

Final selections will appear in to-morrow morning's issue.

VIVID NEWSREEL STIRS AUDIENCE

Even allowing for the coldness which characterizes a matinee audience, it was a remarkable tribute to the virility of this film that the audience was stirred to an enthusiasm which found its outlet in rounds of applause. The applause commenced when there was a short "shot" of the Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, surrounded by his officers, marching on to a parade ground to inspect a section of the troops, out that enthusiasm was as nothing when compared with the spontaneous outbursts which followed two excellent scenes, featuring the Generalissimo and his help-mate, the world famous and universally admired Madame Chiang Kai-shek, who, at the end of the picture, spoke a few words which, obviously, made a very deep impression on the hearts and minds of the thronged audience.

Scenes of soldiers going over the top, of aeroplanes zooming on their death-dealing mission, of anti-aircraft guns answering the challenge; of Japanese planes hurtling to destruction in a smother of dense black smoke; pitiable sights of maimed civilians and wounded soldiers; row upon row of coffins—mute testimony of the ghastliness of Japanese aggression—this and many more such scenes combined in making this a vivid record of one of the greatest tragedies the world has ever known.

The Paramount organization has achieved something for which it is deserving of the very highest praise and the undying gratitude of all who believe that by exposing the hideousness of war, the peoples of the world will eventually become more peace-minded.

Everybody should see this news-reel.
